

2007-08 STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT ORGANIZATION, CAMPUS, & CONTACT	DESCRIPTION
ACADEMIC TEAM (Southwest) Pete Rodski 213-7227 (peter.rodski@kctcs.edu) Bree Wechter 213-7277 (bree.wechter@kctcs.edu)	JCTC is a member of the Kentucky Collegiate Quick Recall League (KCQRL). Each year a team is formed to travel around the state regularly to compete in tournaments. The team is open to all students on all campuses.
AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDENT UNION (Downtown) Sherman Bush 213-2177 (sherman.bush@kctcs.edu)	To meet the needs of African American students at JCTC. Being conscious of the multitude of challenges that confront African American students, and sensing that a unified effort is required to promote superior achievement in education, to form lasting bonds of solidarity among African American students at this college and create an indestructible alliance with the community.
ART CLUB (Downtown) Barry Motes 213-2393 (barry.motes@kctcs.edu) Amy Stewart 213-2290 (amys.stewart@kctcs.edu)	The JCTC Art club is an organization of students interested in furthering their knowledge of art through art activities. Although many members are majoring in art or commercial art, students are welcome regardless of major. Club activities have included local field trips, out-of-town museum excursions, and campus art projects. Each year, club members also assist the art department with student art exhibits and with the spring arts festival.
DISABILITY AWARENESS (Downtown) Terri Martin 213-2449 (terrif.martin@kctcs.edu) Angie Holston 213-2474 (aholston0001@kctcs.edu)	The Disability Awareness Organization (DAO) is a student organization which is open to anyone, students, faculty, staff, who is interested in disability issues. The DAO's mission includes disseminating information about disabilities to everyone on campus in an effort to promote awareness. This student organization also advises administration about disability issues on campus and promotes recognition of exemplary faculty who assist students with disabilities in their academic paths.
DRAMA CLUB (Downtown) Shirley Ewing 213-2511 (shirley.ewing@kctcs.edu)	The Drama Club affords students the opportunity to apply acting and technical theatre techniques learned in the classroom. It also promotes student and faculty involvement in the performing arts campus-wide by offering opportunities for auditioning for, performing in and viewing theatrical productions. The Drama Club meets twice weekly and is open to all JCTC students and faculty. The Drama Club strives to foster an appreciation of theatre and to provide opportunities for artistic growth within the organization and campus-wide.
DRAMA CLUB (Southwest) Michael Hill 213-7268 (michael.hill@kctcs.edu)	The Southwest Campus Drama Club is a student organization whose goal is to present one play a semester for the entertainment and enjoyment of the students, the faculty, and the administration of the Southwest Campus and the residents of the community. The club meets the first Tuesday of the fall semester and the first Tuesday of the spring semester each year to finalize plans for the coming semester and to schedule auditions for the play which has been chosen. Auditions are open to any current or former JCTC students and to any member of the community who might be interested in a particular play which has been chosen.
ENGLISH CLUB (Downtown) Jill Adams 213-2364 (jill.adams@kctcs.edu)	The English Club serves as an interactive social and educational outlet for students who are interested in promoting literacy and supporting activities that contribute to creative and professional development opportunities.
INTERNATIONAL CLUB (Downtown) Susan Panfil 213-2496 (spanfil0001@kctcs.edu)	The International Club at JCTC strives to increase diversity awareness and acceptance, bring attention to global events, celebrate various cultures and bring together people of different backgrounds. Through campus events, club meetings and student activities, International Club promotes learning about world cultures, and positive interactions between members of different cultures. A sub-goal of International Club is to provide an organization through which JCTC's international student population can gather to find support, create networks and gain a more personal sense of community within the larger college.
J-BOARD (a/k/a College Judicial Board) (All Campuses) Telly Sellars 213-2181 (telly.sellars@kctcs.edu)	The J-Board has original jurisdiction over cases involving alleged violations by students and the state college disciplinary offenses listed in the Student Code of Conduct Handbook.
NUCLEAR MEDICINE TECHNOLOGY (a/k/a AlphaBetaGamma) (Downtown) Stephanie Land 759-6392 (sland0002@kctcs.edu)	AlphaBetaGamma is a student organization for students enrolled in the Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging Technology program at JCTC. The purpose of AlphaBetaGamma is to provide academic support, to promote and encourage professional development activities and to facilitate networking opportunities for students.
PARENT SUPPORT GROUP	The group is dedicated to assisting parents who are also students. The group

(Carrollton) Carol Duncan 213-5207 (carol.duncan@kctcs.edu) Susan Carlisle 213-5200 (susan.carlisle@kctcs.edu)	strives to discuss hardships and share encouragement and to help members learn of resources that are available in the community to assist them.
PATHWAYS TO FREEDOM (Downtown) Luanne Goldsby 213-2327 (luanne.goldsby@kctcs.edu)	Pathways To Freedom is a support group for students who are in recovery from addiction or students interested in addiction issues. They are not affiliated with any national organization and have been in existence for 14 years. They sponsor campus wide events every semester that provide education on alcohol/drug usage, abuse and treatment.
PHI THETA KAPPA (Carrollton) Susie Norris 213-5216 (snorris0014@kctcs.edu) Carol Duncan 213-5207 (carol.duncan@kctcs.edu) Susan Carlisle 213-5200 (susan.carlisle@kctcs.edu)	Phi Theta Kappa is the International Honor Society for the two-year college. The organization is dedicated to student scholarship, leadership, service, and fellowship. Students are invited to participate based on GPA and hours completed (3.5 on 12+ earned hours).
PHI THETA KAPPA (Downtown) Annie Lotz 213-5132 (anne.lotz@kctcs.edu) Amy Stewart 213-2290 (amys.stewart@kctcs.edu)	Phi Theta Kappa is the International Honor Society for the two-year college. The organization is dedicated to student scholarship, leadership, service, and fellowship. Students are invited to participate based on GPA and hours completed (3.5 on 12+ earned hours).
PHI THETA KAPPA (Southwest) Carolyn Kleinschmidt 213-7393 (carolyn.kleinschmidt@kctcs.edu) Mary Mulder 213-7325 (mary.mulder@kctcs.edu)	Phi Theta Kappa is the International Honor Society for the two-year college. The organization is dedicated to student scholarship, leadership, service, and fellowship. Students are invited to participate based on GPA and hours completed (3.5 on 12+ earned hours).
SERENITY (Southwest) Bree Wechter 213-7277 (bree.wechter@kctcs.edu)	Serenity is a student organization developed with the purpose to share our experiences, strength and hope with other students who may want help with drug and/or alcohol problems. This organization will help support our student population; in addition, we will participate/sponsor activities as needed to promote awareness of drug/alcohol-related problems.
SINGLE PARENT SUPPORT GROUP (Downtown) Rhonda Gummer 213-2182 (rhonda.gummer@kctcs.edu)	The Single Parent Student Organization was formed to offer support to single parenting students at JCTC. By helping students deal with the challenges of single parenthood, we believe that retention can be enhanced as well as the life skills of a substantial portion of the campus population.
STUDENT AMBASSADORS PROGRAM (Downtown) Carlous Yates 213-2198 (cyates0016@kctcs.edu)	The Student Ambassador program was established in 2006 to enhance student involvement at JCTC. A large responsibility is leading orientations for new students, but the Ambassadors also lead student tours, participate on college committees and are involved in various recruiting and public relations activities. The program focuses on developing leadership skills, networking and goal setting.
STUDENT AMBASSADORS PROGRAM (Southwest) Brandy Slaughter 213-7394 (brandy.slaughter@kctcs.edu)	The Student Ambassador program was established in 2006 to enhance student involvement at JCTC. A large responsibility is leading orientations for new students, but the Ambassadors also lead student tours, participate on college committees and are involved in various recruiting and public relations activities. The program focuses on developing leadership skills, networking and goal setting.
STUDENT APPEALS COMMITTEE (All Campuses) Mark Woods 213-5057 (markr.woods@kctcs.edu)	The College Appeals Board has appellate jurisdiction over all decisions of the College Judicial Board (J-Board) and over decisions of any faculty members on matters of college academic offenses.
STUDENT GOVERNMENT (Carrollton) Carol Duncan 213-5207 (carol.duncan@kctcs.edu) Susan Carlisle 213-5200 (susan.carlisle@kctcs.edu)	The SGA is the voice for the students. We also do service projects for the students and for the community each year.
STUDENT OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY ASSISTANT CLUB (Downtown) Lindsey Lawrence 213-2214 (lindsey.lawrence@kctcs.edu)	The mission of the Student Occupational Therapy Assistant Club (SOTAC) is to advance it's members' professional growth through community service, fellowship, advocating for Occupational Therapy Assistants, and further learning opportunities. Any student currently enrolled at JCTC may be a member of JCTC SOTAC as an active or associate member.
STUDENT SENATE (Downtown) Telly Sellars 213-2181 (telly.sellars@kctcs.edu) Bob Olsen 213-5004 (bobby.olsen@kctcs.edu) Amanda Tindall 213-2255 (amanda.tindall@kctcs.edu)	The Student Senate was founded in 1968 to represent the student population. The Senates purpose is to further student interest and facilitate leadership by providing direct input into polices relating to academic affairs and student life; providing student input into available campus services and activities; providing meaningful educational, social, cultural, and service opportunities for students; and fostering constructive communication and interaction among the different segments of the campus community.
THE QUADRANGLE (Downtown) Sarah Miller 213-2143 (sarah.miller@kctcs.edu)	The Quadrangle is a monthly student newspaper created by students for the educational development of students and is addressed primarily to the campus community. The Quadrangle is dedicated to providing students with a public forum by pursuing the truth through accurate and fair reporting.

YES! (Downtown) Stacy Taylor 213-5152 (stacy.taylor@kctcs.edu)	YES! serves the JCTC community by providing support and promoting visibility and awareness of/for equality among all students, faculty, and staff, focusing on issues pertaining to sexual orientation, race, color, creed, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual identity, sexual preference, religious affiliation, socioeconomic status, age, national origin, ethnic origin, physical, mental, or emotional ability. YES! will help create a stronger campus community, opportunities for students, and a more meaningful and enriching college experience. The core mission is accomplished through social and educational programs and service, activism, and advocacy.

2008-05-12